REPUBLICANS

And Progressives are Getting Together.

The following appeared in Sunday's issue of Lexington Leader as an editorial and gives so much real information that we reprint it for the benefit of both Republicans and Progressives of Knox county:

It is gratifying to note that there is a strong drift all over the country toward a harmonious adjustment of the differences that split the Republican party in 1912, in spite of the vehement pronouncement of Col. Roosevelt and eminent members of his loyal following that the Progressives must go it alone and the equally positive declaration of some of the old line Republicans that they are still standpatists and that the party does not move.

Our prediction, based upon personal intercourse, observation and correspondence, is that the Republican party name and historic political principles will be perpetuated by a merger of the two branches into which the G. O. P. separated last year, but that the Progressives will have the gratification of seeing the customs and abuses upon which they waged warfare in the Chicago convention abandoned and condemned, and a more liberal and responsive organization put in command of the party for the future.

Everything points to radical control of the Democratic party and administration and sweeping tariff reductions under Mr. Wilson, and will produce a reaction in favor of fairly conservative principles and the protective tariff policy of the Republican party, which will make it easier for both factions of 1912 to get together for an old fashioned family reunion.

The standpat element has been "licked to a frazzle," as Colonel Roosevelt would say, and only a small percentage of those who bolted the nomination of Mr. Taft cared a continental for the recall, initiative and referendum, so after all there are no insurmountable differences to overcome if we eliminate both Taft and Roosevelt and the personal considerations which prompt loyal support of each.

Here in Lexington and Fayette county there is a happy disposition to bury the differences of 1912 and unite Progressives, Republicans and independent Democrats in a repetition of the Fusion movement that redeemed Fayette county from Machine rule and gave the taxpayers an economical, business-like administration of fiscal affairs, purified the atmosphere of the Court House, wiped out the iniquitous election system that had long cursed the community, and restored an honest ballot to the people.

In this connection we commend a careful reading of the sensible letter of Judge Roland C. Burns of Catlettsburg, in this issue, on the political situation in Kentucky, in which he gives both factions of the G. O. P. good advice and correctly points out the course that ought to be pursued. Judge Burns is a brainy, level-headed Republican and his words ought to carry weight.

The Baltimore News, owned by Frank A. Munsey, one of the inner circle of Col. Roosevelt's friends, and one of the men who financed the Progressive campaign of 1912, in an editorial in last Thursday's issue, points out that the masses of the Republican and Progressive parties are not in sympathy with the irreconcilable leaders of both factions who refuse to make concessions and insist upon pulling apart.

After reviewing the Maryland situation it says:

Sooner or later the absorption of the rank and file of one of the parties by the other, or of both by a third, is inevitable. There is also a certain amount of independent Democratic strength to be bargained for. And its support cannot be obtained so long as the Republican Progressive contest remains a factional fight. The Chicago crime is past history. The best thing the Progressives can do is to forget it and take up a constructive fight for better government within this State. If it will use concrete and not abstract terms in saying where it stands and what it stands for, its purposes may have some show of achievement. Under what name this is accomplished does not so much matter.

The Republican State convention in Michigan last week was a happy illustration of the "get together" tendency. The Progressives swept the State last year and yet they are acting this year within the Republican organization and largely directing its policies. This is true in nearly all the stalwart Republican States of the West and Northwest, and it practically assures the supremacy of the Republican organization and name and adoption of many Progressive principles.

In the Michigan convention to nominate justices of the Supreme Court and minor officials to be elected at the spring elections, the old line Republicans named the temporary chairman, but the permanent presiding officer was Senator W. Frank James, a Progressive Republican who was elected last fall on the Republican ticket, but was an avowed Roosevelt adherent and one of the third party leader's most active supporters.

Every county in the State had its full quota of delegates and the convention is said to have been by far the largest and most enthusiastic held in years. Many men who were prominent in the national Progressive party last fall returned to the Republican ranks as delegates and were given an equal voice in the convention and there was no factional feeling apparent.

The Progressive element was in control and a platform embodying all Progressive measures now before the Legislature was adopted. The initiative and referendum is favored and the recall of all State officials except the judiciary was approved.

In Idaho James H. Brady, a Republican, has just been elected to the United States Senate to succeed the late Senator Heyburn. Speaking of his election and political conditions he said:

"The Republican split is going to disappear in Idaho and we shall get together. Already there are evidences of a desire of the two factions to renew relations. I was elected by Republicans and Progressives, and I represent all factions of the party, but I am a Republican."

These reports are fairly indicative of the sentiment that is growing throughout the country. If the Progressives and Republicans get together in the great Republican States, it is inevitable that they will unite in Kentucky and our good friends in both parties might as well be at the head instead of the tail of the harmony procession.

Lucky to Reach the Tree.

Owing to a sudden flooding of the valley of Klein-Dietwil, Switzerland, three peasants engaged in hay-making were forced to take refuge in a tree, where they remained forty-eight hours. Pontoons were launched as soon as the men were missed, but the rush of water was so great that it was impossible for a time to reach them.

ROAD IMPROVEMENT

Being Agitated all Over The Country and Steps Being Taken in Many Counties for Bond Issues.

One of the leading questions being discussed all over the continent now is the planning for improvement of public roads. It has become a matter of National concern and prominent members of both houses are trying to perfect plans whereby some method of improvement may be brought about. Federal aid is being planned and committees have been working upon ideas that may be put into practical use in the near future. So far no definite plans have been decided upon although many have been suggested and investigated.

In different communities different conditions exist and what would be good for one community would not work so well in another. This makes it hard to adopt methods that will give the greatest service to the greatest number of people. Recently it was proposed that the Government appropriate a certain amount of money for each mile of road traversed by a mail route, and that such roads be known as "post roads." This plan was discarded from the fact that it was believed that this would soon grow to enormous proportions and would demand more money than could be expended in this work. Then it was suggested that the roads be improved where there was a rural free delivery, but this reached only such a small percentage of the people that this also was abandoned.

Then again opinion is divided regarding the kind of roads to be built, whether it would be better to build transcontinental roads reaching from coast to coast and from the Canadian border to the Gulf, or whether or not it would be better to make these roads lead from the rural districts to the railway centers, thus putting the farmer in better touch with the market and with the outside world. The latter plan appears to be a very sensible one and in our own county would be a great benefit if put into practical use. This we could hardly hope for for several years even if the plan was to be adopted and there would be a law passed to offer this

Federal aid in road construction. This law then would have to be constructed as not to interfere with State laws governing the public roads and here again would arise complications. This is one of the problems that the persons interested in the promotion of Federal aid are trying to solve.

In the meanwhile, other counties and states are going about the building of their own highways regardless of the Governmental aid, and likewise are using good common sense, for even Government aid the people are the ones that contribute to the Government and, whether the Government, State or County build the roads the people are the ones that pay the cost. To many, the expectancy of getting something from the Government, conveys the idea that it is getting something for nothing, and this is one of the reasons that many people are crying for Federal aid in many things that should be attended to right here in our own counties.

In many counties bond issues have been voted by the citizens of the county and the work of improvement has more than paid for itself long before the bonds have all matured and been paid off. Just now in the Eleventh District we hear a great deal of the "Boone Highway" which it is proposed to build with the aid of the Government to begin with the pike at Crab Orchard and to connect with the Virginia pike at Cumberland Gap, thus forming the connecting link of a chain of roadways from the northern part of Maine to the Gulf of Mexico. Should this dream come true, and there is a possibility that it will, this would be a monument far more to be proud of than any other improvement that the same amount of money would purchase. This is only "being talked of," but there are counties in the State that are putting their ideas into practice and are going after the roads they want, regardless of any outside assistance. Our neighbor, Bell county, is one of the counties that is going to try the bond issue plan. They will vote upon this issue next month.

An article in a recent issue of a Louisville paper from Columbia, Ky., has the following to say about the roads of their county:

"The question of bonding Adair county for the purpose of building roads is being strongly agitated here at the present time.

"The editor of the Adair County News personally is in favor of bonding the county to build good roads, and he has tendered the use of the columns of his paper for a discussion among the people of the county concerning the proposition. There is no question that Adair county needs roads, and almost any kind of roads would be better than the ones it has now. The present system for maintaining roads in the county is so defective that it seems to be of little benefit, and as a consequence the roads during the winter season are a menace to the traveling public."

Another article appearing in a daily paper written from Norton, Va., gives some interesting news regarding road improvement in Wise County, Va., and is as follows:

"The Board of Supervisors of Wise County sold to Weil, Roth & Co., of Cincinnati, $260,000 of road bonds voted by the Gladesville and Richmond Magisterial Districts December 31st last. The bonds, which are five-per-cent thirty-year, with the privilege of calling them in at the end of 20 years, sold for 101, the agreement being that the purchasers should bear the cost of printing and other expenses incident to getting the bonds in readiness for transfer."

It is this way all over the country. Everywhere the issue is being discussed and action is being taken. It remains to be seen what Knox County will do if called upon to keep track of the times and build her roads so that they may be passable in winter.

"Uncle Rube" Draws Another Good Crowd

"Uncle Rube" attracted another crowd at the Union College Chapel last Monday evening, and all were well pleased with the performance. A nice sum of money was raised which will go to the Athletic Association of Union College. They are planning to have a high class baseball team this year and will probably put on other attractions before the season opens. "Uncle Rube" was worth the price of admission and they will no doubt have a large crowd should they decide to put on another play before the opening of the baseball season.

We authorized to announce J. H. Blackburn as a candidate for Jailer of Knox County, subject to the action of the Progressive Party, in the General Primary, to be held August 2nd, 1913.

ABOUT POLITICS

A brief summary of the political situation all over the Nation appearing in the last Sunday edition of the Lexington Leader gives some interesting facts concerning the reuniting of the two parties, Republican and Progressive. Editor Roberts reviews the situation after investigating conditions and reports and by communication with the various leaders in the several states and is in position to give the true facts to which he adds his opinions.

In Kentucky there has been much talk of fusion between the Republicans and the Progressives and in some counties there probably in some agreement, but generally speaking, there is a tendency of the Roosevelt followers to go it alone, a condition no doubt brought about by the stringent Primary Law of this state which does not permit of fusion. Here in Knox County there was some considerable talk of a fusion of the Progressives and the Democrats but it now appears that each party will have candidates of their own. The Democrats realize that this year they have the best chance for many years past to grab some of the local county offices and they do not now propose to be sidetracked. Already we have an announcement from a Republican and from a Progressive, although the latter party has not yet perfected their organization. However they will get together about the first week in March and will then formulate plans for their campaign.

Knox County has always been Republican, overwhelmingly so, and under ordinary circumstances the Democrats would not have a look-in, and it was hoped that those who deserted the party last fall would see the error of their ways and help to reorganize the party that has done so much for them and that we could all join together in the fight against the common enemy. There are many good citizens in the county who voted for Roosevelt last fall who were sincere and voted that way as a repudiation of the methods used by Taft at the Chicago convention, who are now back under the old banner, while on the other hand we have yet to bear of one single person who has joined the Bull Moosers since the election.

The Republicans were in the majority then and they are considerably so now. Personally we have some good friends on both sides and would be glad to see them reach a compromise and "rally 'round the old flag." Let us forget Taft and Roosevelt and reason among ourselves a little, for neither of these two persons are concerned about our interests here. We have our own conditions to deal with and why can we not advance our own interests as well or better than Roosevelt, Taft, Bradley or Leslie Combs?

Wonder what has become of the war in the Balkans? Since the Mexicans have been hitting things up during the past two weeks foreign war news has been crowded off the front page of the dailies.

Friday of this week Cole, Hughes and Company begin one of the biggest "sales" ever attempted in Knox County. They have went to a great expense in making arrangements for this sale and are offering goods at an extremely low figure. This is not a "closing out" sale or "bankrupt" sale but is for the purpose of realizing some ready money. Cole, Hughes & Co., will be here after this sale and expect to do a bigger business than ever. They no doubt will be very successful in this sale, as they are all well known over the county and have the reputation of dealing fairly with their customers.

Pinochle Club Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDermott entertained the Pinochle Club at their home on Knox Street last Friday evening. Twenty five games were played, and at the conclusion Miss Lucy Tinsley and Dr. E. B. Dishman were awarded first prizes. Delicious refreshments were served.

Revival Services at the Baptist Church

Revival services were begun at the Baptist Church in this city Monday evening. Rev. T. Martin, evangelist, and Mr. and Mrs. Scholfield as singers are conducting the services assisted by the pastor Rev. Hutson. Large crowds have been attending and everything points to a very successful meeting. These services were to have been started Monday evening by Rev. Martin but he failed to arrive and in his absence Rev. Hutson preached the opening sermon of this series of meetings. The meetings will last two weeks or more.

Friedmann Sails for America

Dr. Frederick Friedmann, whose claim to the discovery of a serum cure for tuberculosis has been much discussed, sailed for New York Tuesday. It is understood he proposes to attempt the cure of 95 out of 100 cases of tuberculosis, a test for which a New York banker has offered $1,000,000 if the success is obtained.

Circuit Court Opens in Whitley County.

Judge F. D. Sampson opened court in Williamsburg last Monday and a large crowd was reported in attendance. A busy term is ahead of them as there are many important cases on the docket in Whitley County. Last week Judge Sampson held a short term of court in Pine Knot, the county seat of Mc-Creary County.

NOTICE - - Change in Roadway

There will be filed in the County Court of Knox County on Feb. 28, 1913 a petition for change of roadway on Cables Creek, and through the lands of George Jones, and described as follows:

Beginning at a point where the new proposed road through Cana-dy's land joins George Jones' land;
thence a southward course across a narrow bottom near an apple tree to the foot of the hill on the opposite side of the branch so as to obtain a suitable grade line; thence around the foot of the hill with a suitable grade line and just below a tenant house on the lands of said Jones and connecting with the old road near the present ford of the creek.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE

Ollie Barton, etc. Plff.
vs.
Elizabeth Jarvis, etc. Defts.

By order of the Knox Circuit
Court, rendered at its January term 1913 in the case of Ollie Barton etc.
plaintiffs against Elizabeth Jarvis
and etc., defendants.

I will, as commissioner, on the 24 day of Feb. 1913 same being first day of the February term of the Knox County Court, sell at the Court House door in Barbourville, Ky., to the highest and best bidder
the following described property;
viz.,

A tract of land situated on the waters of Goose Creek in Knox County, Kentucky and is bounded as follows: on the north by lands of Joe Riley; on the South by lands of Jas. Hammon's widow; on the East by lands of Henry Childers and on the West by lands of Jas.
C. Bailey and it being the track of land which Nannie Riley deceased inherited from the estate of her father Jack Riley and also the tract of land which was conveyed to the said Nannie Riley by Amanda Lucas deceased and contains about 250 acres. Said land being sold for the benefit of the heirs of Nannie Riley deceased.

Said property will be sold on a credit of six months the purchaser to execute bonds with approved security, bearing interest at 6 per cent, from date until paid, having the force and effect of a judgement and retaining a lien on said property until the purchase money is paid.

Witness my hand, this 5th day of Feb. 1913.

W. W. Byrley Commissioner.
Sale about 1 P. M. Purchasers must execute bonds as soon as sale is over, or the property will be immediately put up and resold.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed for ever: nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

REV. CHAS. SAGER SAYS
Mr. C. A. ABBOTT, August 22, 1905.
66 Ann St., New York City.
Dear Sir: I have known for over 40 years of the effects of Wilson's Remedy (Wilson's Preparation of Hypophosphites and Biogen) in cases of pulmonary troubles. At this point I will say to you what you have not before known of, that 40 years since, while I was a resident of N. Y. City, I was severely ill with lung trouble. Physicians said I was a consumptive and my family physician told my wife that he thought I could not recover. My attention was directed to the Wilson Remedy, which I used with splendid effect. I have been on my feet and at work ever since my cure. Yours truly,
REV. CHAS. SAGER,
Pastor M. E. Church, Hunter, (Greene Co.) N. Y.
"On Dec. 1, 1901, Mr. Sager wrote Mr. Abbott:
"My health is very good."
If you will write Mr. Abbott he will gladly furnish you any further information you desire.

"I am an old man—and many of my troubles never happened."—ELBERT HUBBARD
THE white hair and wrinkled faces of our busy men and women tell of doubt, fear and anxiety—more than disease or age. Worry plays havoc with the nervous system—so that digestion is ruined and sleep banished. What oil is to the friction of the delicate parts of an engine—
DR. PIERCE'S
Golden Medical Discovery
is to the delicate organs of the body. It's a tonic and body builder—because it stimulates the liver to vigorous action, assists the stomach to assimilate food—thus enriching the blood, and the nerves and heart in turn are fed on pure rich blood.
Neuralgia "is the cry of starved nerves for food." For forty years "Golden Medical Discovery" in liquid form has given great satisfaction as a tonic and blood maker.
Now it can be obtained in tablet form—from dealers in medicine

Black's Pulmonic Syrup
The New Remedy For Tuberculosis & Bronchitis
Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 6, 1913.
To whom It may Concern:
I was pronounced to be in the last stage of tuberculosis when Dr. W. F. Black first called on me, several months ago.
I was having hemorrhages lasting several hours each time, and was sinking fast. I had been given up by other physicians, when Dr. Black began his treatment. After two or three treatments he succeeded in stopping the hemorrhages.
I had a very bad cough and got little or no rest. My cough also began to get better and finally left me entirely. My family as well as myself, give Dr. Black credit for saving my life.
During the past few days I have had Dr. C. M. Rudolph and Dr. Joe G. Moore, prominent physicians of Birmingham, Ala. make a thorough examination, and they state that I have now no lung trouble.
I would consider it a pleasure to answer any communication regarding myself, especially if I can be the means of helping others by telling them what Dr. Black's Medicine has done for me.
My address is 224 Oakland Ave., Birmingham, Ala., and I can be seen there at any time, and I would be glad to give anyone a personal interview. (Signed) Mrs. R. L. NEESE Subscribed and sworn to before me this, 15th day of January, 1913. J. S. M. RUSSELL, Notary Public.
My commission expires April, 1914.

EXPLANATION

There is a reason for every sale. This is a sale of many reasons and purposes.

We must realize the cash from the overloaded stocks, then owing the unfavorable weather in the past month we are determined to do two months business in one. This we realize, we can accomplish by simply sacrificing profits.

This is positively a bona fide sale. We have backed up every single item advertised and more. We place our personal guarantee that these prices are correct and that the goods will be here for you. We don't say how long they'll last at these prices. However you cannot duplicate these values at any time except during this sale.

We shall not venture to tell you of the frightful loss this means to us. You would not believe it, unless we attempt to excuse the loss. The character of this sale, the magnitude and possibly a portion of the public may criticize us for what they may consider an unbusinesslike policy, but we have the satisfaction of placing our case honestly before you. Our welfare is in your hands and we are going to take our medicine.

You cannot afford to miss this big event. Bargains such as we will offer will be unsurpassed and we ask your serious consideration and investigation of this sale. Absolute and satisfaction assured. Owing to the extensive advertising campaign we have inaugurated to get the people interested in this GREAT SALE we caution you to beware of unscrupulous merchants who may try to lure you in by fictitious signs. Be sure you are right. Do not enter until you see the name
